Translation

German and English can be booked in the registration form.

We warmly invite you to our working conference about religion and spirituality in our field of work. This includes festivals, commemorations, services, bible evenings, rituals, class lessons, study groups, personal spiritual practice, ...

How does one experience the need for religion and spirituality?

How can we recognize these needs and questions?

In what ways can we respond?

What inner skills and attitude does this require of us and how can we nurture them?

Conference fee incl. lunch
