An Introduction to the Biodynamic Impulse

Start: Friday, April 19th, 19:00

End: Saturday, April 20th, 15:00

You are cordially invited to an introductory seminar on the basics of the Biodynamic Impulse. In this upcoming seminar we will get the chance to talk with the Goetheanum gardeners, Paul Pieterse and Benno Otter about the basics of the Biodynamic impulse and to learn about the practices on the flourishing Goetheanum campus.

There will be complimentary aspects of the seminar ranging from technical aspects of gardening to practices that allow us to deepen our connection with the world around us. It would be great if you could bring texts that inspire you, which we can then read and work on together. In this context we will also discuss passages from the book "Braiding Sweetgrass". We will have two meals on Saturday at the Youth Section House. Limited lodging is also available for Friday night. We are looking forward to welcoming you!

Hosts: Paul Pieterse, Benno Otter and Noël Norbron
