

PEACE BUILDING - AND THE ROLE OF THE YOUTH

Evening seminar with peace activist Rajagopal (India)

Tuesday 28th May, 2024
7 pm - 9 pm
Haus Schuurman, Dornach

Program

- * Introductory words on the peace work of the land rights organisation Ekta Parishad (India), Barbara Schnetzler
- * Presentation by the peace activist Rajagopal on peace education and the role of the youth
- * Discussion on the role of young people today and their longing for active participation in shaping their future

Rajagopal is a prominent Indian human rights defender and founding member and Vice-Chair of the Gandhi Peace Foundation in New Delhi. He founded Ekta Parishad in 1991, a non-violent grassroots human rights organisation dedicated to restoring land and water rights to local communities in India. The organisation's activists work towards building community-based governance, local self-reliance and responsible government. Its aim is to see India's poorest people gain control over livelihood resources, especially land, water and forests.

