

Owen Barfield's philosophy of history and related theory of poetics

With Ashton Arnoldy

April 1st, 19:30-21:30

Learn about Barfield's philosophy of history and his related theory of poetics. The evening will include an introduction to Barfield's thought on history and poetry as well as creative writing exercises and discussion. Donations welcome.

Youth Section House
Dorneckstr. 1
4143- Dornach

Ashton K. Arnoldy is, by training, a multimedia artist, astrologer, and Ph.D. candidate in the Philosophy, Cosmology, and Consciousness program at the California Institute of Integral Studies. His dissertation work aims for a postcolonial recuperation of metanarrative (i.e., the evolution of consciousness) in the poetic, participatory philosophy of Owen Barfield and Rudolf Steiner.