| Bookbinding poetry

SEPTEMBER 13-14, 2024
at the Youth Section House

This workshop is an introduction to bookbinding and poetry in which we will explore what it means to create with our hands spiritually. An approach to creativity and manual work, connecting the world of the ideas with the material world through different arts. In this workshop we seek to connect with the sensitivity of the word and the truth of being able to create with our hands through our own experience. No background in writing or bookbinding is required. This workshop is facilitated by Ángela Millan and Manuela Smolovich, Youth Section co-workers.

Start: Friday, September 13 at 19.00
End: Saturday, September 14 at 19.00

Costs, including bookbinding materials:
