

Medizinische Sektion am Goetheanum
Arbeitsgruppe Anthroposophische
Perioperativmedizin

Symposium of the Working Group on Anthroposophic Perioperative Medicine at the Goetheanum Sept. 8–9, 2025

Aspects of the art of surgical healing

Montag, 08.09.25

- 17:00 Uhr Welcome and brief introduction to the event
- 17:15 Uhr The body as the temple of the I – Understanding of the physical body in surgical medicine / Philipp Busche
- 18:30 Uhr break
- 19:00 Uhr Practical exercise on the topic of warmth / Eurythmie / Gabriele Berndt
- 19:15 The importance of warmth in perioperative medicine – insights from different perspectives: doctors, nursing, therapy
- 20:20 Practical exercise on warmth / Eurythmie / Gabriele Berndt
- ab 20:30 Getting together over snacks and drinks

Dienstag, 09.09.25

- 9:00 Uhr Practical exercise on the topic of wound healing / Eurythmie / Gabriele Berndt
- 9:15 Uhr Therapeutic aspects of wound healing, Practical examples and more / Members of the working group
- 10:30 Uhr break
- 11:00 Uhr Thoughts on ethics in medicine – the attitude of the surgeon / Christoph Zerm
- 12:20 Uhr Summary and future prospects
- 12:40 Uhr Closure with Eurythmie / Gabriele Berndt
- 13:00 Uhr End of the event

Those interested from the fields of therapy, medicine, and nursing are welcome to attend. The symposium will be held in German. Unfortunately there will be no translation available.

Registration is requested.

Please register by emailing: sonny.jung@medsektion-ikam.org

The event is free of charge. A voluntary donation to cover costs can be made on site.
Further information about the venue and speakers will be provided in good time before the event.